

ATLANTIC COUNTY AVA TECHNOLOGY CENTER

What is the Atlantic County AVA Technology Center?

- The AVA has been servicing county schools with shared educational media resources since 1952 through the establishment of county AVA Commissions by NJ Statute 18A:51. The center began by purchasing 16 mm films and now provides content in over 7,000 different up-to-date titles through VHS videotapes, CD ROMs, DVDs, kits and the Internet.

What Services are provided by the AVA?

- We are the Internet Service Provider for member schools
- Web Site hosting for schools
- Online media booking
- Video-on-Demand over the Internet

AVA Web Site

- Excellent informational links
- County schools and other great Web Sites
- AVA information

WebMax Online Catalog

- All titles available through the AVA can be viewed and ordered through the online resource catalog. Many titles have preview clips, teacher guides, and other web resources available online. Over 250 titles are available for immediate digital streaming while searching within the catalog.

- Usernumber: _____ Password: avamedia

EVAN

- Statewide video-on-demand service through Learn360 providing curriculum-based educational video over the Internet. Includes video clips, still images, guides and other online resources. User number & password is the same as the AVA Online Catalog with the addition of the letter "A" (and a "0" (zero) if your district is only one digit) in front of your EVAN user #.

Unitedstreaming.com

- Video-on-demand service through United Learning providing educational video over the Internet. Includes content from Discovery Channel School, Standard Deviants, Weston Woods and many more educational media producers. User number & password is the same as the AVA Online Catalog.

StarLab

- Portable planetarium available to be picked up from the center with an abundance of support materials. Great for inter-disciplinary topics such as astronomy, biology, earth science, and mythology and feature exciting interactive activities.

PLEASE DISTRIBUTE TO ALL TEACHERS

Phone: 625-1322

Web Site: www.atlanticava.org

Fax: 625-1398